CITY REAL ESTATE. [From Jersey City Journal.] IMBECILES' RIGHTS MAY NOT BE AFFECTED BY STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.

SALE OF FIFTY ACRES UPSET. It Was Taken by Misrepresentation in 1881."

[In this case, a decree was made setting aside the sale of a large tract of valuable land as illegal, and having been fraudulently obtained. It was held that the rights of imbectles cannot be affected by the Statute of Limitations, nor placed in jeonardy because of laches in their assertion. Innocent purchasers from the grantee who obtained the land by fraud were involved in the litigation, but their titles were finally sustained, the person obtaining the property by fraud, and selling it, being required to account to the imbeciles' guardian for all the money received for it.]

If this company had insured the title, FIRST-It would have conducted, at its own expense, the costly litigation involved.

SECOND-It would, if defeated. have made good the loss of the property to the insured.
